New powers to keep yobs off skatepark

■ MOVE ALONG

POLICE will use new powers to get tough on “selfish” yobs who have been making residents’ lives a misery.

People living close to the Howe Road skatepark in Haverhill have reported numerous incidents of vandalism, intimidation, under-age drinking and littering in recent weeks.

Now Suffolk police are cracking down on the “unacceptable” antisocial behaviour with a new dispersal order, which comes into effect this Friday. This means groups of youths causing a disturbance can be broken up and banned from the area for up to 24 hours.

Inspector Adrian Dawson, who is responsible for policing in Haverhill, said: “Lots of skaters use and enjoy the park as it is intended, but a group persists in using the facility and the surrounding area in an antisocial manner.

“This includes drinking, being noisy and causing damage to street lighting, fences and the skate ramps themselves.

“This is unacceptable to the people who use the park responsibly, the community who use the area around the park, the police and local authorities.

“We don’t want to take the park away from the genuine users, but at present the antisocial behaviour of those who gather here for other reasons is doing this, and local people are being intimidated by their behaviour.”

Officers will also have the power to escort under-16s home if they are found to be causing a nuisance after 9pm.

Councillor Sara Mildmay-White, St Edmundsbury Borough Council’s cabinet member for crime reduction, said: “The council, the police and the community all support the proper use of the skatepark and do not want its enjoyment wrecked by the irresponsible behaviour of others.

“The dispersal order protects the interests of neighbouring residents and genuine skatepark users by allowing the police to deal with the antisocial behaviour of a selfish minority.”

The dispersal order will initially run for six months, and its progress will be monitored during this period. The first review of how the dispersal order is working will take place in June.

'Hospice appeal will help us meet great local need'

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FOR people living with cancer or other life-threatening diseases, a home visit from Macmillan nurse Trevor Farrington can be a real boost.

Mr Farrington, 35, has been a specialist Macmillan carer for 13 years after registering as a general nurse, studying for a master's degree and managing an oncology ward in London.

The Clare resident has worked for the St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds for the past 14 months.

He said: "I believe I have a very privileged role, you get to meet a lot of vulnerable patients and families and through team work you can have a great influence on their lives."

The Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal aims to raise £40,000 so the hospice can provide services for patients from the Haverhill area in their own homes, and Mr Farrington believes this extra support will complement the job.

He said: "Hospice at Home is perhaps an additional level of support for local people, including those who will make a full recovery, by giving them a choice of where they would like to be cared for."

Mr Farrington usually visits six or seven patients a day over an area stretching from Barrow to Wickhambrook, Haverhill, Glemsford and Clare.

His weekday visits are usually made between 8am and 6pm, but a seven-day service is provided by the hospice and Mr Farrington is part of a rota of nurses who cover the whole of west Suffolk at weekends.

He said: "I work closely with health visitors and GPs to make sure that any patients with specialist palliative needs have them met efficiently."

"With issues like the control of distressing symptoms I can perhaps advise a holistic approach in their own home."

"We promote comfort and dignity and accepting where people want to be cared for."

"Clients are increasingly using more techniques such as complementary therapies like reflexology and relaxation techniques to control pain."

But treating the symptoms is not the only part of Mr Farrington's job. He explains: "Another one of our roles is to give financial assistance and signpost people to charities and Macmillan grants to apply for."

"Family support work is also very important. Pain is not the only problem, there are a lot of things like overwhelming anxiety and stress which can affect people. The family support team and the chaplain can help support the carers."

"For some patients who do unfortunately die it is about having their needs addressed sensitively and making sure they feel supported at that most difficult time."

"Your appeal is a fantastic idea and hopefully will help make that choice of care a reality for them."

"In the 14 months that I have been working in Haverhill I have really noticed how everyone seems to know each other and what a strong sense of community there is here."

■ Tickets are still available for a big band night in aid of the appeal on Saturday.

Haverhill Town Mayor Les Ager is donating the proceeds of his charity dance to the help boost the total, which now stands at over £8,000.

The night, at the Haverhill Arts Centre from 8pm to 11.45pm, will feature music from the renowned Galaxy Big Band. Tickets are £12.50, including a buffet and are available on (01440) 714140.

■ If you've got an idea for an event which can help raise the appeal total even higher, let us know. We can help you make any event, big or small, a huge success. Call Jo Deeks on (01440) 715582

How can you help hit the target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715 582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Salary is fair, says new council chief

ONE of the country's highest-paid council chiefs has defended her £220,000 salary.

Andrea Hill's appointment as chief executive of Suffolk County Council sparked a political row over her pay which led opposition Labour councillors to lodge an official complaint to the council's auditor.

The Labour group has complained that she will be earning about £70,000 more than the man she replaced and could also be in line for a handsome redundancy payout if the council is abolished to make way for a new one in two years.

But Mrs Hill, who lives in Duxford and was assistant chief executive at Cambridge City Council between 1994-9, was unfazed by the controversy.

She said staff and councillors of all parties had been "very welcoming" and those with concerns about her pay had been at pains to make it clear that their criticism was not personal.

She said: "I think the salary is a fair rate of pay for the job I'm doing and is very similar to other council chief executives."

"I lead 28,000 staff and the council has a budget of £1 billion providing hundreds of services to 700,000 people right across Suffolk."

"If I worked for a company of the same size in the private sector I could earn around three to four times that amount but I want to work in local government and have done so for 23 years."

She is originally from Essex where she began her career. Before her move to Suffolk's Ipswich headquarters she headed Bedfordshire County Council, which went from being one of the worst in the country to a "good" rating in less than three years.

At Suffolk she will help guide the council through two of the biggest shake-ups the county has faced – council reorganisation and education reorganisation.

The county has already voted to back a single council for the county as a whole with a new "One Suffolk" authority replacing the existing county council and the seven district and borough councils.

On education, she argued that the switch to a two-tier system which will lead to the closure of middle schools in Haverhill, Newmarket and Mildenhall would improve results.

Woman dies after crash

A HAVERHILL woman who died after suffering serious injuries in a car smash has been named.

Jane Gatt, 44, was driving a Citroen Saxo which was in collision with a Porsche on the A143 at Thurlow on Monday.

She was one of four people taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital after the collision but she later died. The three remaining casualties remain at the hospital.

The male driver of the Porsche and a female passenger from the Saxo are in a critical condition, and a male passenger from the Saxo is in a serious condition.

The crash happened at around 11am and closed the road.

Anyone who saw the crash, or who has any other information, should call Pc Nick Spencer at the Bury St Edmunds Roads Policing Unit on (01473) 613500.

Open day success at newt pond

A REVAMPED wildlife habitat was unveiled at a family fun day.

The newt pond at Castle Playing Fields in Haverhill has been given a major facelift with new fishing piers, a picnic area and planting, after the Parkway Community Association won lottery funding in a television poll.

To celebrate the launch, the association organised a series of fun events, including martial arts displays, music from Haverhill Silver Band and traditional fairground sideshow games. There was also a performance by Collette's School of Dancing.

Denise Moulds, secretary of the association, said: "It went really well, and everyone was very positive about what's been done here."

PCT's green light for walk-in health centre

A PIONEERING new health centre for Suffolk will be based in Haverhill, it has been confirmed.

The new GP-led centre, due to open in April 2009, will be a hub for walk-in health provision, social care and pharmacy services in the county.

Now Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) is looking for a site for the state-of-the-art centre – and an organisation to manage it.

Alastair McWhirter, chairman of the PCT's board, who signed off the decision to place the clinic in

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Haverhill, said: "It was very important to pick the right place to improve on the NHS services we already provide."

"Haverhill was always a preferred option and, after listening to people's views on the matter and looking at the needs of the local community and the existing community services, we saw that Haverhill was the best place for it."

The new centre, which will be paid for by the Government, will open from 8am-8pm, seven days a week, and will form a link with other community services.

Councillor Nigel Aitkens, St Edmundsbury Borough Council's cabinet member for Haverhill said: "The council welcomes this important investment in additional health care facilities for Haverhill and looks forward to working in partnership with Suffolk PCT to help deliver the new facilities and to shaping the services they will provide."

In January, Suffolk PCT's board supported a recommendation to put the new health centre in Haverhill, and since then has been listening to representation from residents.

The move follows a controversial decision by the PCT last year to cut £280,000 from this year's budget for GPs in the town.

A petition with 10,000 signatures against the cuts was delivered to the Prime Minister by campaigners Marion McLaine and Ann Sisson, from the town's two surgeries.

The trust argued the restructuring was not about cuts to services and put forward improvements such as longer opening hours and more services.

Joint decisions needed ahead of closures –NUT

SCRAPPING local middle schools could spark a mass exodus of teachers, a union leader fears.

The four middle schools in and around Haverhill will be closed in 2011 as part of a £23m plan to introduce a two-tier system, with just primary and secondary schools remaining in the county.

But the National Union of Teachers (NUT) says the closures will cause disruption for pupils and could lead to staff moving elsewhere ahead of the changes.

Martin Goold, county secretary for the NUT, said: "At the moment they are hoping that teachers will be able to get jobs in secondary or primary schools and that others will take voluntary redundancy, but there needs to be an actual process to oversee it.

"The only way we can see any hope of managing these movements of staff and pupils in a sensible and calm way and avoiding mass redundancies is to have joint staffing decisions being made from now, not just in two years' time."

The NUT is calling for schools to form federations so they can share governing bodies and make joint staffing decisions.

Mr Goold said: "Federation allows for much more flexibility. The council is setting itself up for a great deal of personnel problems by not putting a proper process in place to secure jobs."

A Suffolk County Council spokesman said schools were already encouraged to recruit form within the county before advertising vacancies more widely.

He added: "It is not possible, nor should it be, for the council to require schools to enter a partnership [federate]. If schools decided federation is the best way to manage the transition, the county council would fully support them in that decision."

Sweet message of hope from soldier

BY Damion Roberts

TWO young boys are determined to keep their soldier brother fully stocked up while he serves in Afghanistan.

Chance and Chase Meads, aged 12 and 14 and from Warren Court, Haverhill, want members of the public to donate simple day-to-day items such as toiletries and puzzle books so they can send them out to their 34-year-old brother Curtis and his army colleagues.

Curtis, who has been in the war-torn country for about a month, is a member of the 5 Scots, which is part of the Army's premier fighting formation, 16 Air Assault Brigade based in Canterbury.

His brother Chance, who is a pupil at Castle Hill Middle School, said: "If everyone can help just a little bit – it would help the troops a lot."

In an email to his family, Curtis said: "Haribo sweets always go down good with the lads. Well, any sort of candy to be honest. "Tell Chase not to worry – I'm well trained and have good blokes around me so there is no worries about me getting hit. We have the best equipment in the world for stopping the roadside bombs as well."

Additional help for troops is being provided by Harry and Beryl Phillips, also of Haverhill. The couple, both in their 70s, have collected 50 shoe boxes full of items and have received two letters of thanks from soldiers in Afghanistan.

They began putting posters in the town's shop windows after hearing a radio plea for items from Ron Cartwright of Felixstowe.

Mr Phillips, a former soldier, said: "We sort them out into boxes and Mr Cartwright picks them up and then they get sent off to Afghanistan.

"The soldiers are so appreciative. They are really grateful for what the people of Haverhill have done."

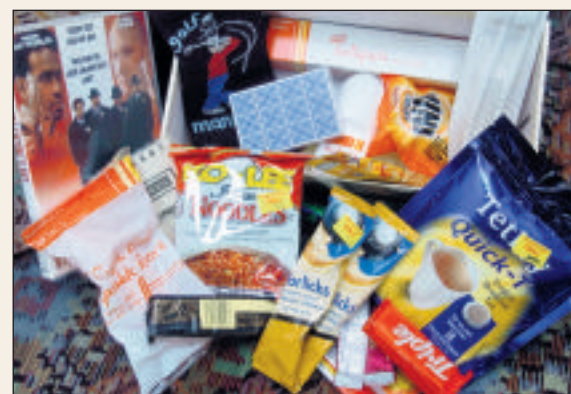

A Ministry of Defence spokesman said non-perishables, such as boiled sweets and dry soups, are welcomed.

The spokesman added: "It is a marvellous way of showing support for our troops and adding a bit of variety is welcomed by troops in what can be testing circumstances."

To donate items you can phone the Meads household on (01440) 705684 or Mr and Mrs Phillips on (01440) 763804.

'Confusing' signs over town's new booze ban

SHOPPERS were left confused after signs outlawing alcohol consumption in public spaces were put up a week early.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council put up the alcohol free zone signs last Thursday, even though the newly-agreed ban on drinking in non-licensed public spaces did not begin until this Thursday.

This left some locals wondering if the date of the ban had been moved forward without them knowing, or whether revellers could continue to drink in public despite these signs saying otherwise.

Haverhill resident Michael Smith, 28, said: "It's a bit confusing isn't it? I don't want to drink in public, but even if I did I wouldn't know if I was allowed to or not."

"The signs suggest I can't, but the ban isn't in place. The council should have waited and should have put the signs up on the day the ban came into force. This way, it's like they have unofficially begun the ban a week early without telling people."

Roger Howard, 33, from Bury St Edmunds, said: "I think the ban is a good idea. It'll work well but this is pretty cheeky if you ask me because people will see the signs and think it's all over for public drinking."

BY Damion Roberts

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

To make matters worse for the council, the signs – of which there are 64, produced at a cost of £1,733 – contained a spelling mistake. Instead of saying people will be fined if they do not hand their bottles over when asked to do so by "a police officer" it says that they should hand alcohol over when asked to do so by "a police office".

"Does that mean you have to go to the police office to hand over your drink, or will the bricks and mortar come to you?" asked Mr Howard.

The signs also use the word "licenced" premises when it should use "licensed".

Responding to the criticism, a spokesman for the council said: "The small spelling error is not difficult to correct and work is being planned to do so at minimal cost and with no delay to the ban."

"Residents who have seen the signs going up have expressed warm support for the initiative and are looking forward to the ban coming into effect."

■ CLEAR SIGNS? . . . the new notices which went up a week early and contain two glaring spelling errors. CP

'Water man' cons his way into homes

CALLOUS thieves have preyed on elderly victims in a spate of distraction burglaries in Haverhill.

Three incidents took place in the town between 10.30am and 11.15am on Monday.

Two attempted burglaries occurred in Pentlow Hawke Close. In both cases, a man called at the homes of elderly residents claiming to be from a company working in the area fixing water pipes.

He was allowed entry to check the water pressure but was never left alone by the alert residents and left both properties empty handed.

The third incident occurred in Withersfield Road, where again a man called at the home of an elderly resident saying he was a neighbour, again claiming water pressure in the street was low.

He briefly showed identification and was allowed entry to check the victim's taps. After he left, the victim discovered that cupboards had been searched and cash stolen.

A Suffolk police spokesman said: "Were you in Pentlow Hawke Close or Withersfield Road at these times, and did you see or hear anything unusual or suspicious?"

"Did you see any suspicious persons or vehicles in the area? Do you know who may have been responsible for these crimes?"

"Always ask for identification and if there is any doubt refuse them entry. Genuine callers will not object to you verifying their details."

Anyone with information about the incidents should call Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Thieves raid house

RESIDENTS have been advised to make sure their homes are securely locked, following a burglary in Haverhill.

A television and mobile phone were taken by burglars who raided a home in the town on Tuesday.

The break-in occurred at a property in Hales Barn Road between 2am and 9.30am, when the burglars gained access to the house through an unlocked door.

A Suffolk police spokeswoman said: "Please be aware of this danger and ensure your premises are secure at all times."

"Were you in the area between these times? If so did you see anyone acting suspiciously? Or do you know who is responsible for this crime?"

If you have any information about the incident, call Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

■ 'TRUE CHAMPION' . . . MP Richard Spring collects the first CB9 Haverhill badge from Cllr Anne Gower, who is also chairman of the Haverhill Partnership. Picture: Alex Weatherill 482844.

MP's badge of honour

AN MP is the first recipient of a badge celebrating the people of Haverhill. Richard Spring MP was presented with the CB9 Haverhill badge last Friday at a brief ceremony at the council offices at Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill. The badge was handed over by Councillor Anne Gower, chairman of the Haverhill Partnership, who said Mr Spring is a "true champion of the people of the town of Haverhill". Cllr Gower added: "He speaks with passionate, well-informed authority about our future, as well as campaigning vigorously for the issues currently facing us all." Speaking after the ceremony, Mr Spring said: "I am honoured to be counted among the many people who make Haverhill special. "This badge silently speaks volumes about our pride in our community, our confidence in its future and our appreciation of one another." St Edmundsbury Borough Council has announced that more badges will be sent out in the coming weeks. If you would like a badge or think someone else deserves one call the council on (01440) 702271 or (01284) 757061.

Solution to ugly street sign issue

Sir, In response to your article 'Sign turns shoppers away, say traders' (Weekly News, May 1), would a simple solution be to change the sign to "pedestrians only" instead of "road closed" and to improve the way the sign is displayed? Could there be holes drilled into the road with metal liners/pipes that the sign slots into? The frame could be the shape of an inverted 'u' with the sign mounted within the frame, which would then slot into the two lined holes drilled into the road, which would then remove the padlock and chain that hold the sign in position.

Society's call to cut new homes numbers

CAMPAIGNERS have warned that plans to build thousands of new homes in the district could damage the environment and have called for the numbers to be reduced.

Suffolk Preservation Society (SPS) said proposals to build 530 extra homes each year in the St Edmundsbury borough area had "no justification".

In response to a consultation carried out by St Edmundsbury Borough Council on its Local Development Framework (LDF) document, the society has also called for steeper targets on the use of renewable energies. It also wants to ensure any new development is sustainable.

Richard Ward, society director, said: "What evidence is there to support a build rate of 530 homes per year without damage to the environment?"

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"We can see no justification at this time to continue throughout the plan period with this build rate. To do so would, in our opinion, harm the environment of the borough.

"The build rate should be decreased to a figure reflecting local need and the environmental capacity of the area, commensurate with the delivery of true sustainable development."

The council has asked for views on five different options on future housing growth, ranging from extra development in the borough's rural and urban areas to creating a new settlement of at least 3,000 homes, along with jobs and services.

But the society claims one single option is not appropriate, and says a combination of smaller developments spread across the borough would be more sustainable while better suiting the character of the area and the needs of its residents.

Mr Ward said: "In our view, delivering what local communities need is likely to require a mix of all the options.

"This includes, subject to the provision of all necessary infrastructures, a new settlement to remove the pressure for development on existing settlements.

"It is unfortunate that a sixth option of mixing the other options was not a part of this consultation process."

The society has also called on the council to put a greater focus on the needs and wants of local people when deciding how the borough will develop over the next 20 years.

It says the consultation document does not reflect the diversity of the borough and the differing needs of its urban and rural communities.

Names needed

A COLLEGE needs your help to name its four new houses.

Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College, in Eastern Avenue, Haverhill, is introducing a new house system in September and all staff and students will belong to one of four houses. New pupils will also be placed in a house group before they join the school to help them integrate.

The college wants suggestions for names and these could relate to anything from place names to famous Haverhill characters.

You can email r.abbott@castlemanor.lppplus.net or call (01440) 705501 with suggestions. The winning names will be announced in June.

Picture: Keith Jones 481765.

So happy together, 60 years on

A COUPLE who first met over a canteen counter have celebrated 60 years of marriage. Arthur and Marjorie Pickett, who live at Shearman Court, Mill Road, Haverhill, met during the Second World War when Marjorie worked in a canteen at Bishop's Stortford and Arthur used to pop in to buy doughnuts. The couple celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary during a surprise party with their only child Sarah, their three grandsons, two granddaughters and one great granddaughter. The happy couple also received a telegram from the Queen and everyone at Shearman Court chipped in money to buy them a flower arrangement for the occasion. Marjorie, who is 87 and

Arthur, who is 90, married in 1948 at the Methodist Church in Bishop's Stortford. Speaking about the celebration, Sarah said: "They were taken aback and it was a lovely surprise and they are still very happy together."

A stately way to aid charity

A HOUSE and garden fair is being held at a picturesque stately home to raise money for charity.

The event, in aid of Asthma UK, takes place at Chilford Hall, Linton, next Tuesday.

This is the 10th successive year the fair has been held. In that time the event has raised £75,000 for the charity and organisers hope this year's fair will raise another £12,000.

Jo Fairey, one of the organisers, said: "The faces on the committee have changed but we still all have family links to asthma and we are as committed as ever to raising money for Asthma UK."

"This year's fair promises to be a particularly special event with 60 stalls selling everything from stylish accessories for the home, and parasols and rugs for the garden, to shoes, jewellery, swimwear, bags and food."

The fair runs from 10am until 4pm, and entry costs £3.50 per person.

Rainbows' party

A RAINBOWS group held a party to celebrate the 21st birthday of the children's organisation.

Youngsters aged between five and seven gathered at Haverhill's Youth Centre for the event.

The town's 1st Rainbows planted sunflowers and gave them to schools in the town as part of the celebration.

Joint effort to help hard of hearing

A CAMPAIGN has been launched urging people with hearing difficulties to fit special fire alarms in their homes.

Suffolk Fire and Rescue Service has teamed up with the Royal National Institute for Deaf People (RNID) to urge those who are deaf and hard of hearing to check they have the right smoke detection system.

The partnership comes as part of Deaf Awareness Week, which runs until Sunday.

Ian Howell, the fire service's divisional officer, said many people with hearing loss may be at risk when not wearing hearing aids or when they are far from their smoke alarm, especially if their bedroom door is closed.

"This means they might not be able to hear their smoke alarm if it goes off during the night, which is when the majority of fires in the home occur," Mr Howell said.

"It is vital that in these circumstances people ensure

BY Damion Roberts

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

they have the right smoke alarm technology in their home to protect them."

Mr Howell said if anyone was in any doubt about what type of alarm would best suit them they should contact the fire and rescue service on (01473) 260586 for a free home fire risk.

"We are here to help make sure your home is as fire safe as possible," Mr Howell added.

One person who knows the importance of the correct fire alarm is Suffolk County councillor Colin Spence, who himself is deaf in one ear.

Cllr Spence said: "I'm glad that we can raise awareness of the fact that there are a number of different kinds of smoke alarms out there available to the deaf or hard of hearing."

Among the alarms available are those with strobe lighting, vibrating alarms and small wearable radio-linked pagers.

The Gross rate is the contractual rate of interest payable before deduction of income tax at the rate specified by law (currently 20%).

The Net rate is the rate paid after income tax has been deducted (currently 20%).

The Annual Equivalent Rate (AER) is a notional rate which illustrates what the gross interest rate would be if interest was paid and added to the account annually. AERs on an account which pays monthly interest assumes interest is added to the account at the end of each month during the year. In practice, the option to have interest added in this way is not available on our Hallmark monthly interest option.

The Tax-free rate is the contractual rate of interest payable where interest is exempt from income tax.

All the above rates are variable. Cash Individual Savings Accounts (ISAs), and Cash Child Trust Fund accounts, pay interest tax-free provided all terms and conditions of the account types are met. On all other accounts, interest will be paid at the net rate after the appropriate rate of income tax (currently 20%) has been deducted, or gross on receipt of the required declaration form. Where interest is paid net, the income tax may be reclaimed if the amount deducted exceeds the investor's tax liability. Higher rate taxpayers will have to pay the extra due (the difference between tax deducted at 20% and the higher rate of 40%). Tax assumptions are based on current legislation which may change in the future. Net rates are illustrative only and have been rounded to two decimal places. Full terms and conditions are available from all our branches. Cambridge Building Society complies with The Banking Code.

NOTICE TO EXISTING BORROWERS

With effect from 8th May 2008, the rate of interest for mortgages will decrease by 0.15% per annum until further notice. The revised Variable Home Loan Rate (equivalent to Standard Variable Rate) will be 6.30% p.a. The revised Commercial Base Rate, for non owner-occupied residential loans, will be 6.80% p.a. Under the annual review system, this change of interest will be reflected in the revised monthly payments effective from March 2009.

This notice does not apply to any mortgage account operated by interim review. Those borrowers will be notified separately.

If you have any queries about this rate change, please contact your nearest branch or telephone our Customer Services Department on 01223 727727

■ BAG LADY . . . Alexa Moxon shows off the shopping bag dress. CP.

Dressed to impress . . . and reuse!

A BALLGOWN made from bin and carrier bags took centre stage at a supermarket to encourage people to reuse shopping bags. Jade Nicholas, who works at Sonia's salon in Queen Street, Haverhill, was helped by her grandmother Daphne to create the dress, which was worn by Alexa Moxon, to complement her winning hairstyle in the recent West Suffolk College Hair and Beauty Festival. Alexa wore the dress again at Sainsbury's in Haverhill to help promote an event encouraging more customers to reuse their shopping bags. Research has highlighted that many customers have reusable "bags for life" but forget to bring them when they go shopping. Sainsbury's gave out fridge magnets to help jog customers' memories. Sainsbury's has reduced the amount of bags given away by 100 million since 2007 – that equates to 875 tonnes of plastic. Steve Venters, store manager, said: "I am delighted that our customers are using and reusing longer life bags more than ever before and relying less on ordinary carrier bags."

Warning after break-in

POLICE are warning home owners to make sure their homes are secure after a burglary in Haverhill.

Between 11.30pm last Thursday and 6am the following morning, a home in Duddery Road was broken into with entry gained through the back door.

Among the items stolen were a Dell laptop computer, a Sony Ericsson mobile phone and a purse and its contents.

Suffolk Police have offered the following advice to residents: "Please be aware. Ensure your doors and windows are locked, even if you are at home."

"Do not make it easy for the opportunist burglar to steal your belongings."

Police are appealing for information from anyone who may have been in the road during the time of the break-in and who may have seen or heard anything unusual or suspicious.

Anyone with information should contact officers at Haverhill on (01284) 774100 quoting reference HH/08/992

Plea to turn over new leaf

A FIVE-WEEK campaign has begun to get more people to join libraries.

Suffolk County Council has launched Join a Library as part of the National Year of Reading, a 12-month celebration of reading aimed at building a greater national passion for reading in England.

The Suffolk campaign continues until May 31 so go along to your local library or record office with one proof of your name and address and join for free.

If you are already a member but have lost your library card you have until the end of May to get a replacement for free – the usual charge is 55p.

The council’s portfolio holder for adult and community services, Cllr Graham Newman, said: “If you can read, you can tackle just about everything in life.”

All Suffolk libraries are open on Sunday and you can use your card in each of them.

For more information on the National Year of Reading visit www.yearofreading.org.uk

Bankers dig in for park work

BANK staff did not mind getting their hands dirty as they rolled their sleeves up to get stuck into a community project at their local park. Barclays Bank staff from Haverhill spent a “community day” at East Town Park working on some ground that needed turning over and getting some planting done.

Elaine Hewes, of Haverhill Volunteer Centre, said she was grateful to the bank staff who contacted the centre asking if there was a community project that they could get involved in. She said: “They said they didn’t mind getting their hands dirty, so we took them at their word. They all had a great time getting involved and appreciated the hard work done at East Town Park by volunteers.”

Anyone else who would like to get involved in volunteering at East Town Park should contact the Haverhill Volunteer Centre on (01440) 708444 or visit the website www.hvc.org.uk

Police urge motorists to stay safe on roads

MORE than 1,700 motorists were caught breaking the law during the first three months of 2008.

The figures, which have been released by Suffolk Police and equate to 18 people a day, cover those motorists who have either been told off or fined for speeding, not wearing seatbelts or driving while using a mobile phone.

In January, 241 motorists were given fines for speeding while 126 were fined for using phones, and 121 drivers and passengers were caught not wearing seatbelts.

The figures for February show that 200 fines were issued to speeding drivers, 156 to those using mobiles and 400 drivers were caught not wearing their seatbelts.

The latest figures, for March, show 234 fines were given for speeding, 139 for using mobiles and 158 people were told off for not wearing seatbelts.

Chief Inspector Martin Barnes-Smith, from Suffolk’s roads’ policing unit, said: “By not wearing a seatbelt, by speeding or by using your mobile phone, you are putting yourself and others at serious risk of injury or even death.

He said: “There are still far too many people taking this risk and I would appeal to them to think about their actions.”

Ager stays on as Mayor

A POPULAR local politician has been appointed as mayor of the town where he was born.

Councillor Les Ager, who has been acting mayor of Haverhill since his predecessor Ted Trebble died in January, has been reappointed to the position for 2008/09.

Following his unopposed election, he told Haverhill Town Council members: "I'd consider it an honour to be the town mayor. 'If anyone had said to me two-and-a-half years ago when I joined the council that I would have become mayor in such a short space of time, I wouldn't have believed them.'"

Bike goes in garden raid

A MAN'S bicycle was stolen from a back garden in Haverhill. The theft of the silver and black Saracen bike from a property in Eden Road took place between 7.30pm last Friday and 9.30am the following day.

Anyone with information about the theft should call Pc Sarah Reavill on (01284) 774100.

Special space, just for mums and babies

MUMS in Haverhill now have a new place to go where they can breastfeed in comfort. Fitted out with comfortable sofas and screened off, a corner of the reception area in Haverhill Health Centre, in Camps Road, has been set aside specially for breastfeeding mothers. Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) health visitors worked in partnership with the Cartwheels and On Track children's centres to set up the area. Joan Nevin, clinical team leader – health visiting for the PCT, said: "We want to encourage new mothers to breastfeed for as long as possible. It is generally accepted that most mums find it difficult to breastfeed when out and about in towns. "We wanted to provide a place close to the centre of town where people can feel they can breastfeed their baby comfortably. This will give additional support to mums in Haverhill, helping them breastfeed for longer, which has great health benefits for mothers and babies." Debbie Frost, the children's centre co-ordinator, said: "We work very closely with the health visitors and when we heard they wanted to set up a breastfeeding area in the health centre, we were keen to help. "I know from my own experiences that it is hard to find places to breastfeed when you are out in any town. "We were able to pay for two screens at a cost of £325 and donated two sofas we no longer needed to put in the area." Currently, 13 per cent of women in the Haverhill area are breastfeeding at six weeks and it is hoped that by providing a comfortable, discreet place to feed, more women will prolong breastfeeding. Health visitors in Haverhill recently set up an evening clinic for parents of under fives on the first Tuesday of every month between 5pm-7pm. They already run three weekly clinics to give parents support.

Work on garages begins

A MAJOR overhaul of 3,500 garages has begun.

The work on the premises, owned by West Suffolk landlord Havebury Housing Partnership, includes rebuilding two garage blocks on the Parkway estate in Haverhill, set to be completed by the end of September. The project is set to cost £300,000.

Work is also under way to replace 340 old wooden garage doors on Haverhill's Chalkstone estate with new metal doors.

To help towards the cost of this work, the housing partnership began collecting an additional £1 per week in 2005 from tenants with garages.

Steve Cook, Havebury's chief executive, said: "Over the past five years Havebury has focused on improvements to tenants' homes, major estate improvements and building new properties. But there are other things to do and one of them is to undertake a programme of improvements to our garage premises."

Floral flavour

US GROUP Black Lips come to The Junction in Cambridge on Sunday. The group has been described by NME as "Johnny Cash for the Noughties" but prefer to call themselves "flower punk". Their infamous stage shows have been known to include inter-band kissing, nudity and fireworks. They released the album Good Bad Not Evil last year and their double A-side single Bad Kids/Leroy Faster comes out this month. To book call (01223) 511511.

Tenor tunes

COUNTER tenor James Bowman will be performing at Great St Mary's Church in Cambridge on Saturday. His career has seen him performing opera, oratorio, contemporary music and solo recitals, and this concert, conducted by Ralph Woodward, will include pieces by Bach, Purcell, Handel and Pergolesi. Tickets are £6-£16. To book call (01223) 357851.

Hot dates

POST-PUNK hitmakers The Stranglers and electropoppers Hot Chip have both announced dates at the Cambridge Corn Exchange for October. # Hilarious stage antics with Mikado women

GET your dancing shoes on for the Haverhill Town Mayor's Charity Dance, in aid of the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

The renowned Galaxy Big Band takes to the stage at Haverhill Arts Centre on Saturday from 8pm to serve up some top-tapping tunes and much-needed cash for the appeal, which aims to raise £40,000 so the hospice can provide services for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes. The band is treading in the footsteps of the big bands of the 1940s and have established an enviable reputation for swing music, jive and jazz. Band leader Roger Chinery heads up an 18-piece line up of saxophones, brass and rhythm as well as playing solo trumpet. A buffet meal is included in the ticket price of £12.50.

■ Centre Stage Company returns to the arts centre with The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society's Production of The Mikado.

Follow the antics of the women as they tackle their latest theatrical endeavour in this Gilbert and Sullivan operetta. The ladies' "interpretation" is tackled with their usual enthusiasm, despite constraints of casting and costume, which produces hilarious mishaps, forgotten lines and shameless scene-stealing. The whole show is a fun-filled romp, not to be missed by fans of Gilbert and Sullivan or anyone else who wants a side-splitting night out. It's on nightly at 7.30pm until Saturday. There's also a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm. ■ Regrettably, they'll be no moseying on down to the arts centre on Friday as Diva's of

Disco has been cancelled. Box office staff are contacting everybody who has purchased tickets, but if they haven't got in touch with you, phone them on (01440) 714140 for a refund.

■ On the upside you'll be pleased to hear that Hooked on Country,

Sold on Sixties will be returning on Friday, July 4 and Ollie Austin & His All-Star Band will arrive on Sunday, October 5.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

ADVERTISING FEATURE

STURMER Nurseries has everything for the green and not so green-fingered gardener to help get your outside space in shape for a summer of outdoor living.

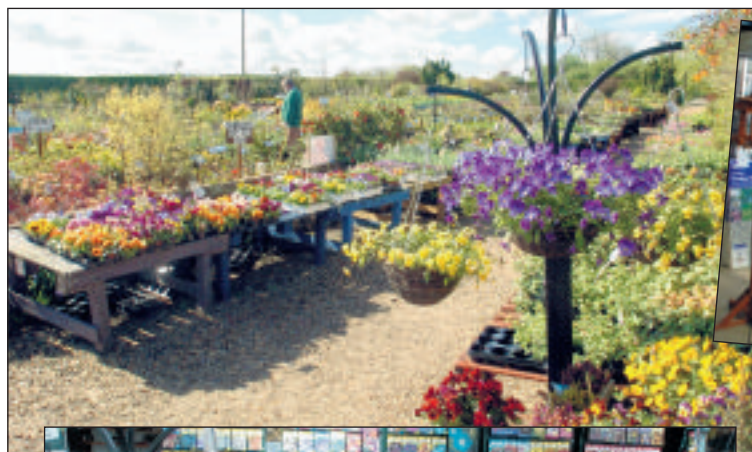

Located in Sturmer, just outside Haverhill, the established, family-owned, garden centre has been running in the area for 40 years.

The centre is well-known for its plants and according to co-owner Robert Mason, supplies a selection to entice every keen gardener. He says: "We supply most things to satisfy the gardener and offer a wide selection of quality plants at an affordable price."

The selection of plants range from shrubs, trees, climbers and roses to herbs, lavenders, hedging plants and herbaceous perennials, all of which are suitable for planting in local conditions.

Among the colourful range of plants, gardeners will also find an impressive range of tools, fertilisers, pots, trays, baskets and more to keep you busy in the garden.

Robert adds: "Most of our plants are sourced from suppliers in East Anglia – or grown by ourselves. We take a lot of effort in finding good quality stock. We have all the plants you would expect to find at a garden centre – and also offer our customers a changing selection of more unusual trees and shrubs."

All of the staff are happy to advise customers as to what plants would grow well in their garden and what to avoid and also at what time of year to plant.

According to Robert, now is a good time to be planting herbaceous perennials and shrubs but gardeners should resist the temptation to plant bedding plants as they could suffer until the threat of overnight frosts has passed.

Keen to live up to its philosophy of offering quality products at affordable prices, Sturmer Nurseries regularly has multi-buy offers and currently has good deals on cottage garden plants, small shrubs, climbers and compost.

Opening times are 9am-5.30pm every day except Thursday when the nursery is closed.

For more information call (01440) 706416 or visit the centre at Church Walk, Sturmer. Alternatively visit www.sturmernurseries.co.uk

Getting rid of awkward stains with the autostain removal system (ASR) is simplicity itself. Whether it's red wine, cosmetic, tomato or grass, you don't need to use any proprietary stain removers or aggressive chemicals*. Just choose the appropriate setting and the machine does the rest. And the best thing is ASR will remove stains even at low temperatures so your most delicate clothes can be stain free.

Audi's stylish sun lounger

Audi's overall sales have risen from 0.6 per cent of the UK market in 1991 to 4.53 in 2007, so I think we can safely say it is doing nicely, thank you very much.

It should go on to do even better if the new Audi A3 cabriolet is anything to go by. The car is technically on sale now, but first models arrive at the dealerships around May 10. Many orders have already come in because this is a car which has been cleverly tailored into its own niche market.

A useful four-seater, it can whip its hood up and down much faster than the opposition. You can have the sun pouring in with the operation completed in nine seconds, and it can be done at speeds up to 19mph. It will sell to high-income multi-vehicle drivers in the 30 to 39 age group, says Audi. A third will be women with a high level of education and income and a third will have children under the age of 18. You might suggest these are people with more money than sense who are more likely to enjoy global warming than defeat it and your argument would be underpinned by the startling disclosure that the cabriolet will become a SECOND VEHICLE for many wives!

The engine range is generous with two petrols and two diesels. The petrol engines are of 1.8 and 2.0-litre capacity while the diesels are very similar with 1.9 and 2.0 litres. Audi did not have diesels available when the car was introduced in the south of France but the petrol 1.8 proved a winner, delivering acres of smooth power on deserted winding roads.

Both automatic and manual gearboxes are available and frankly if I were a wealthy mum heading off for the school run I would go for the automatic every time. You can do paddle changes if you are really keen but most will let it get on with it as a background operation.

■ TOP-DOWN MOTORING... and the Audi A3 Cabriolet has a practical aspect too!

You cannot deny the A3 cabrio is a head-turner. There are no signs that it has extensive reinforcement to compensate for the missing roof and on the road it proved satisfyingly solid. Trim levels come as Standard, Sport and S Line and prices run from £22,300 for a bog standard Standard up to £26,160 for the top of the range diesel S Line.

BASICALLY...

A very stylish cabriolet from which to watch the globe warm itself. Top-down conditions are sheltered and calm and there is even generous luggage space at the rear to complement the four-seat interior.

VERDICT

Audi A3 Cabriolet

Price: £22,300 to £26,160

Looks: You won't be disappointed!

Handling: Outstanding

Practicality: Lots of space

Performance: Will put a smile on your face

In-built cameras for lollipop signs

COUNCILS are arming school crossing patrols with a hi-tech weapon to combat acts of "lollipop rage", it was announced this week.

Patrolmen and women are to receive new lollipop signs with an in-built camera to record rage incidents and car number plates.

The initiative follows an estimated 1,400 lollipop rage incidents reported to councils last year.

Dozens of lollipop men and women have needed hospital treatment after being hit by cars and others have complained of regular abuse and intimidation.

Typical offences include:

- Driving around the patrol when they are in the road;
- Revving engines or sounding horns while both the patrol and children are crossing;
- Driving closely to the patrol;
- Swearing and using threatening language.

Councillor David Sparks, chairman of the Local Government Association's transport board, said: "It's unbelievable that we have to take this action, but the lives of children are at risk from increasing numbers of drivers who are so selfish that they are willing to put lives at risk by refusing to stop for 30 seconds at a school crossing.

"Councils will do everything in their power to stamp this out. Abuse and intimidation of lollipop men and women who are carrying out a vital service to the community will also not be tolerated.

"Motorists need to be made aware that they are committing a criminal offence and we hope this new technology will prove an effective deterrent."

Kirklees Council is one of the first in the country to test the new signs and a spokeswoman said they hoped to be able to issue them to patrol staff in the future.

Vera Irving, 54, has been a lollipop lady for 20 years and today used a prototype of the new sign at her crossing in Long Lane, Dalton, Huddersfield, West Yorkshire.

She said she had experienced a number of incidents of "lollipop rage" during her time as school crossing patrol staff and believed the signs could be the way to combat such behaviour.

Mrs Irving said: "It's excellent. It's about time to me that something was done because there's far too many near-misses.

"You have these motorists that have the attitude where they think 'Oh, I won't stop for a lollipop lady, why should I?' and they just go through. But once it happens it's too late. By the time you've got a pen and piece of paper out of your pocket the motorist has already gone through. It's so quick they get away with it.

"So having this camera in the lollipop is great because they can't get away with it. To me it's an excellent idea and hopefully all of us will have one."

Mrs Irving added that even if she did take down a driver's number, she needed witnesses to prove that an offence had been committed.

"If you take their number, it's your word against theirs unless you've got witnesses so there's nothing you can do about it. With the camera in the lollipop it doesn't matter if you've got witnesses, the evidence is there. They won't get away with it, their car and number plate is on film," she said.

Mrs Irving said she hoped the new signs would act as a deterrent to drivers who did not want to risk a £1,000 fine and three penalty points on their licences.

"It will certainly make people think. Even if all patrol staff aren't issued with them, how are the drivers to know that? You can't tell just by looking at the sticks so just the thought that the sign might have a camera in it should stop them. Is it worth £1,000 fine and points? I think not," she said.

Astons set for Le Mans

ASTON Martin Racing is gearing up for this year's Le Mans and the racing arm of the Gaydon-based marque is aiming for its second successive class victory. The most obvious difference since last year's win is its change in colour scheme. Moving away from British Racing Green, Aston Martin, one of the most famous names in sportscar racing has teamed up with another – Gulf. The stylish Aston Martin DBR9 will be flying down the Mulsanne Straight in the evocative pale blue and orange of the fuel brand, colours made famous by adorning classic Le Mans cars such as the Ford GT40 and the Porsche 917. As George Howard-Chappell, Aston Martin Racing team principal, says: "Le Mans . . . Gulf . . . Aston Martin, they're meant for one another."

The car looks fantastic but Le Mans is much more than just looking good. The legendary 24 hour race is one of the ultimate tests of endurance and fortunately, the DBR9 seems to have kept its pace from last year – or so the testing at Paul Ricard circuit indicates. Another change to the team is in the driver line-up. Former Formula 1 driver Heinz Harold Frentzen has joined the team for this year's race. He joins David Brabham and Darren Turner to pilot the two-car entry.

Aston Martin Racing has also revealed the first official pictures of the Vantage GT2, which will make its race debut with James Watts Automotive at the first round of the Le Mans Series at Barcelona on April 5. The Vantage GT2 is latest racing car from Aston Martin Racing and completes its portfolio of GT cars in each of the four categories GT1, GT2, GT3, GT4. The Vantage GT2 has been designed to run on both standard and E85 bio-ethanol fuel.

MOTORING

Forecourts losing out

■ SHOCKING . . . fuel prices a year ago at Tesco, left – and at a garage in Histon last week.

WITH fuel costs spiralling across the region, the Petrol Retailers Association has defended its members against charges that pump prices are too high.

“While oil companies announced high profits most forecourt retailers sold fuel at a loss, and this is not an unusual situation for them,” said Ray Holloway, director of the RMI Petrol Retailers Association (PRA), commenting on the price of fuel and its impact on the future viability of the forecourt sector.

Holloway continued: “The issues of supply at Grangemouth thrust the issue of fuel pricing back onto the front pages, but the actual prices were not directly affected by that situation. Prices were rising already for retailers and motorists alike as a result of annual recurring high summer demand for oil.”

BP and Shell are international oil companies. The firms claim that most of their profits are the result of oil exploration activities abroad. The oil industry deems this to be a separate business to the UK forecourt retail sector.

Holloway explains: “Most of the sites in the UK branded BP or Shell are actually independent retailers. They work in a challenging business area, with high costs and very low returns. Most are kept afloat by the shop attached to their site.

“For many, these numbers are unsustainable and they are being forced to close in increasing numbers. Around 300 filling stations shut down every year, and motorists are now noticing gaps in fuel availability, and if it gets worse as expected, they will certainly be inconvenienced when searching for a forecourt in some areas.”

There are around 9,200 forecourts in the UK, including supermarket filling stations. This is the lowest number of filling stations in the UK since 1912. Since the fuel protests in 2000, one-third of the filling stations open at the time have disappeared.

Holloway adds: “Oil company profits should not be confused with forecourt prosperity.”

Healthy travel will aid against obesity

SEVENTY organisations last week called on politicians to invest 10 per cent of transport budgets on cycling and walking initiatives to fight obesity.

The groups, who include the Association of Directors of Public Health (ADPH), also want to see 20mph speed limits across all residential areas.

They are also calling for improved driver training, better-enforced traffic laws, and more cycle routes. The organisations said that in 2006/07, spending on cycling in England amounted to 0.3 per cent of the transport budget and 0.4 per cent in Wales.

The groups believe significant investment now could help create a shift away from sedentary travel and have a huge impact on public health. ADPH president Dr Tim Crayford said: “If we really want to see levels of obesity declining in the UK, we have to move on from the rhetoric. We need to see a visible investment in infrastructure that makes cycling and walking the travel modes of choice for people across the country.”

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Youth wins out in Wratting challenge

WEST Wratting Reds under-10 hosted their first Dads against Lads match at their Bull Lane ground on Saturday. In a game played in the best of spirits, the ageless wonders achieved a creditable 2-2 draw at the end of normal time. However, the youngsters managed a dream result when they beat their tiring opponents with two goals in extra time to win 4-2.

■ LINE-UPS . . . the Wratting Lads and Dads teams face the camera at their special match.

Ince hat-trick sinks Strikers

HUNDON Hawks under-nines produced their best performance of the season to dispose of NST Strikers 6-0.

Hundon came out all guns blazing with Branham Ince nabbing a hat-trick, skipper Milo Holmes bagging a brace and Jake Ryan completing the scoring.

■ West Wratting Yellows under-10 chalked up an 8-1 victory over Lawshall.

Man-of-the-match Charlie Ellam broke the deadlock after 10 minutes and further goals were added by Leyton George and Mo Horsley before Lawshall scored to narrow the deficit.

Jack Harvey soon extended Wratting's lead with a superb free kick.

George coolly scored his second and Ellam scored three more to bring his total to four.

■ West Wratting under-11s attended the UK Football Tours Great Yarmouth event on May Bank Holiday weekend.

In an 11-a-side match they were beaten 4-3 by Volta Juniors.

Wratting dominated the opening half with Cooper, Lambert and Bush finishing well as they led 3-2.

Wratting's stamina was affected by the lack of substitutes and as the game went on the players began to tire. Volta made changes and eventually won 4-3.

In six-a-side games against Volta and Shrublands, both Wratting teams won three out of five matches with both teams scoring more than 40 and conceding fewer than 10.

With the combination of points from both teams, Wratting were the clear tournament winners.

Their outstanding players of the tournament were Ryan Cooper and Andrew Gedny.

■ Withersfield Youth, representing Town and County, stole the trophy from the grasp of Redhill Boys at a tournament in Sussex.

A very tense affair saw Withersfield crowned champions on the tour to Bognor Regis.

A league of 10 of the best teams in the country fought it out over three long days with Withersfield claiming top spot.

Trophies presented by West Ham United star Mark Noble were the icing on the cake for manager John Kennedy, who predicted the boys were going all the way in the event.

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Dellar's century sets up victory

ADAM Dellar smashed an unbeaten 137 as newly-promoted Haverhill got off to a flying start with a seven-wicket win at home to Witham in Division Two of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship. Witham batted first and made 207 for 5 only for Dellar to lead the way as Haverhill replied with 208 for 3.

■ Arvid Gunderson struck an undefeated 50 and skipper Adie Westley took 4 for 38, but their efforts were not enough to prevent Weston Colville losing by a single wicket to Waresley in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League. Batting first, Weston Colville mustered a lowly 99, with Kevin Cole taking 4 for 33. Only Gunderson made a noteworthy contribution. Westley did his best to secure an unlikely win and Jake Smith took 2 for 27, but Myles Cordeaux (38) and

■ TON UP . . . Haverhill's Adam Dellar.

Ashwin Reddy (25) helped Waresley reach 103 for 9.

■ Gary Ellis was delighted with Horseheath's display in their 103-run trouncing of relegated Cambridge St Giles in the Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One.

The captain saw Robbie Ketteridge hit an unbeaten 61 and Dan Goldsmith add 20 to the tally as his charges were all out for 182, with Alan Rodger bagging 4 for 16. St Giles' reply got off to a horrendous start as they slumped to 4 for 4 and were eventually skittled out for 79 thanks to Martin Giles (3 for 5) and Ketteridge (3 for 13). Ellis said: "We didn't know what to expect as St Giles are a new side in the league and everybody did their bit."

GOLF

Youngster Longley shows seniors the way in cup event

In the other three matches, the ladies beat Flempton 4-0, the seniors triumphed over Lords C&C Club 5-3 and the juniors defeated Gosfield 7-2.

BOWLS

Haverhill stars' hectic time at national finals

BOWLERS from Haverhill were prominent for North Essex at the English Bowling Federation Indoor Finals at Newark IBC.

The week started well for North Essex with the Ladies Harry Carver competition, when their rinks of Lorna Dockerill, Margaret Wells and Wendy Debenham, doubled with Steph Smith, Ethel Parkhurst and Grace Cutts went through the competition undefeated.

However, two drawn games left them joint runners-up behind Huntingdonshire.

In the men's four-bowl singles, Liam Botten made the quarter-finals, only to go down 21-10 to fellow England trialist and eventual winner Ashley Clipston, of Derbyshire.

Botten fared one better in the under-25s' competition, going out in the semis 21-19 to Northamptonshire's Jim Bennett.

The North Essex pairing of Andy Phillips and Graham Smith reached the quarter-finals of the men's pairs, losing 22-15 to eventual winners Sean Langham and Andy Clipstone (Derbyshire).

Smith and Phillips teamed up with Phillips' son, Aaron, for the men's rinks and, after victories over North Cambs and Nottinghamshire, 18-13 and 20-17, were defeated in the semis 18-8 by D Brown, J Heath and G Morris, of Lincolnshire.

A busy tournament for Andy Phillips and Graham Smith saw them teamed with Jean Corfield in the mixed rinks competition. However, they were beaten 22-17 in a close game against a Durham rink.

Triumphant Horseheath get tips from Head boy

MARTIN Towers took on board Dean Headley's pearls of wisdom and led Horseheath into the third round of the npower Village Cup at the expense of Upwood. Captain Gary Ellis was desperate to win the match and get revenge on the side who knocked them out of the regional semi-finals on a bowl-out last season. And an intriguing contest was given extra spice as the competition's sponsors arranged for former England stars Headley and Alec Stewart to act as mentors to the teams. Horseheath were given a pep talk by Headley and put through their paces in a vigorous warm-up, before getting down to business. And Ellis led by example with a fine knock of 72 and Robbie Ketteridge (30) and Alan Ketteridge (27) also contributed to their side's total of 181 for 9. Upwood were always up against it and Towers collected 4 for 29 to help Horseheath dismiss their opponents for 161 and secure a 20-run win with an over to spare. Ellis said: "Dean spent a lot of time with us doing a lot of routines and throw-downs and it was a really enjoyable day. "It was an all-round team performance and we took wickets when we needed to."

FOOTBALL

Haverhill hit for six in swansong

PAUL Shaw's second-half strike gave Haverhill something to smile about as they crashed 6-1 at Leiston on Saturday and ended their Ridgeons League, Premier Division campaign on a sour note.

The forward had a decent shot saved at the near post in the opening stages, before the hosts went ahead and doubled their

Leiston 6 Haverhill Rovers 1

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

advantage from the penalty spot following a foul by caretaker player-manager Marcus Hunt.

Leiston converted another spot-kick and notched again from open play to put the game beyond Haverhill at the interval, and they made it 5-0 on the hour mark.

Hunt has made it clear that he is not interested in taking on the job full-time, but his players showed determination to keep carving out chances, despite the disappointing scoreline.

Ryan Kent managed to get a shot away and was a whisker away from notching, but his effort hit the side-netting, before Jamie Challis sliced wide.

Shaw then got on the scoresheet when he showed a predatory instinct to bury a loose ball after Marc Abbott's cross had been spilled by the goalkeeper.

Abbott went close to scoring himself when he latched onto Jamie Thurlbourne's high pass and forced a decent save from the Leiston goalkeeper.

But Rovers, who finished in a respectable 10th place in the table, were unable to reduce their arrears further and the hosts completed the rout in the last four minutes.

Edwards earns treble success

HAVERHILL Rovers reserves completed a magnificent treble when they added to their league title with victories in the Suffolk Senior Reserve Cup final and the Ridgeons Reserve League play-off final in the space of four days.

Tom Edwards was the hero in the play-off final with a crucial sudden-death penalty save after the match with Walsham-le-Willows reserves had ended 1-1 after extra time, Lee Sharp with the equalising goal with a fine header just after half time.

In the Suffolk Senior Reserve Cup final, Sharp's scored his 19th goal of the season with a sixth-minute strike, which proved to be the only goal of the game against Ipswich Wanderers reserves. Rovers dominated from start to finish, but somehow only managed to win 1-0 as the Wanderers goalkeeper made great saves from Jenkin, Thomas and Hammond.

The only negative on the night was a serious looking knee injury for Sharp as he scored the winner.

It's Rover Ryan at the double

RYAN Fowler notched a brace as Haverhill Rovers under-13s beat Over Sports 4-1 in their Cambridge & District Colts Knockout Cup final at Cambridge Football Stadium on Sunday. Tom Wilbraham and Chaz Mainland hit one apiece for Haverhill, while the prolific Ryan Coulson replied for Over.
